

Landgrove

Mr and Mrs M. H. Smith were in Poultney Sunday visiting their sons Austin and Marvin, where they are attending school.

Mr and Mrs Edward Marcey and two sons and little daughter and Miss Marie Lynch of Hampton, N. Y., visited at H. W. Abbott's Sunday.

Several from here attended the fair at Bondville last week.

Mr and Mrs Lewis Richardson of Mass. who have been visiting relatives and friends here, returned to their home last week.

Peru

Mrs. Ellen Hapgood recently spent a week in Manchester, N. H., as the guest of her brother, H. Fox Davis.

Mrs. J. A. Peckham and daughter of Newport, R. I., are visiting at her father's, W. J. Farnum's for a few days.

Lester Farnum of Manchester Depot was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorp of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Hanner of West Hartford, Conn., have been spending the past week in town.

Misses Adelaide Lakin and Beatrice Russell attended the state C. E. convention in Prattleboro the last of the week.

Look into the home life of the fellow who claims nothing worries him. Possibly his wife earns the living.

When we hear a fellow boasting that he never changes his mind we agree with him. He cannot change something that does not exist.

ONIONS

Onions this year are small in size and high in price. It will pay you to buy now, as the price will be higher later on. I have two sizes on hand, 6c a pound for the larger ones, and the smaller ones are 6 pounds for 25c. You know "an apple a day keeps the doctor away." An onion a day keeps everyone away. . .
